Product / In-kind Sponsor:

Companies wishing to participate as a product or in-kind sponsor are considered on a case-by-case basis. Depending on the product and/or services provided, product sponsors can receive exposure via the event ranging from a race-day vendor booth to logo placement on event brochures, posters, and t-shirts. Product sponsors providing food or product samples on event day must be prepared to provide enough items for a minimum of 2,500 people.

Product Donation:

There is no better way to promote your health-related product than to provide samples to a health oriented market. Your donation will be valued at retail price, but the total cost value will be provided in sponsorship advertising. All product sponsors must provide enough products for all race participants (2500 units).

Vendor Booth Space:

Showcase your business or product to participants and spectators. Being on site for the event will not only show community support, but you will have the ability to interact directly with potential consumers.

Vendor booth supplied at no cost to any business or organization providing free samples or a giveaway item to event participants (minimum 2500 units required). For more information, please visit www.solanoturkeytrot.org.

Note to Potential Sponsors:

This year's Solano Turkey Trot attendance is expected to be significantly greater than last year. The expanded expo area with music and fun activities will invite spectators to linger and enjoy the vendor booths before, during, and after the race. This is a great marketing opportunity to capture the health, fitness, and family-minded consumer.
